GJTBS
A Professional Law Corporation

GALLOWAY JOHNSON TOMPKINS BURR AND SMITH

PROPERTY INSURANCE

Galloway Johnson | Property Insurance Litigation Law Firm

The Property attorneys at Galloway Johnson have the knowledge and understanding of not only property law, but also policy interpretation and damage valuation required to litigate such complex claims. Our property attorneys litigate first- and third-party property claims in both state and federal courts for numerous domestic and commercial carriers. We also often act as local counsel to law firms not licensed in the states in which our offices are located. Due to the knowledge, experience and negotiation skills of our property lawyers, many Galloway Johnson property litigation attorneys are also requested to serve as appraisers and umpires pursuant to the terms of first-party policies.

We utilize our knowledge and experience to assist claims professionals in all aspects of first-party property losses, including but not limited to:

Arson and Fraud Investigations
Examinations Under Oath
Bad Faith Litigation
Regulatory Compliance
Insurance Department Complaints
Appraisals and Property Valuations
Holdback Claims
Coverage Analyses
Sworn Proofs of Loss
Coinsurance Provisions
Subrogation
Denial Letters
Alternative Dispute Resolution